SENATE WANTS TO KNOW WHO RIDES ON PASSES

Also Demands That State Officials Show What Has Been Done With Appropriations.

TALLAHASSEE, April 30.—Discussion after discussion consumed the entire time of the morning session of the Senate yesterday, and when the smoke of battle had cleared away resolutions had been adopted providing for a committee to investigate for the purpose of ascertaining what legislators and State officials are riding on railroad passes in violation of the law; a committee to investigate the report of the Internal Improvement Investigating Commission, and see what steps can be taken by the State in the matter and calling upon all State department officials to provide an itemized statement showing what has been done with the 1907 appropriations, how many employees they have, and what each one does.

Senator Beard bitterly attacked W. S. Jennings during an hour's speech in the morning. He reviewed that portion of the investigating commission's report concerning Mr. Jennings, and charged that he received $50,000 out of the State and classed him as a freebooter.

In urging his resolutions for an itemized statement from department heads, Senator Johnson stated that he had heard that some offices in the capitol are being made regular family affairs, and that may clerks do not have to work half the time. There were no votes registered against the resolution calling for an investigation of the members to see if any were violating the law by riding on railroad passes.

In the afternoon the Senate concurred by vote of 26 to 3 to the House amendment to the McMullen prohibition resolution. Senators Buckman, Harris and Sams were the only ones who stood pat and voted no.

The Harris bill raising the salary of the Attorney General to $3,500 a year was killed by a vote of 19 to 19.

A resolution introduced by Senator

Cook calls for a revision of the State constitution, and thus starts the ball rolling for a constitutional convention.

Routine Proceedings.

Twenty-seven members were present when the Senate was called to order at 10 o'clock.

Resolutions were introduced as follows: Senate Resolution No. 77, by Flournoy—For committees of three to investigate report of Internal Improvement Investigating Commission and report recommendations regarding proper action. Set as special order at 11 o'clock.

Senate Resolution No. 38, by Johnson—Requiring reports from the State officers regarding expenditure of 1907 appropriations and manner of employees with their duties with object in view of cutting out extravagance.

Mr. Johnson spoke for the resolution and moved its adoption. In speaking he said he had heard that some offices are being made family affairs, and also that some clerks do not work half the time. He asked for a closer scrutinizing of regular appropriations.

Mr. Cone moved that the resolution be printed and made special order for Friday afternoon.

Mr. Harris thought printing of resolution a needless expense, and asked that consideration be postponed until 10 o'clock.

Senator Cone offered amendment covering members of 1907 and 1908 Legislature, and whether any have received free railroad passes.

Senator Johnson said the object of the amendment was to ride it to death. Senator Cone urged that investigation should go clear to the bottom and leave out whitewash brushes, and find out if Senators have been receiving railroad passes in violation of the law.

LID WILL BE PLACED "TIGHT" ON SUNDAY

MAYOR ORDERS THAT MARSHAL ENFORCE SUNDAY LAW.

You Will Not Be Able to Purchase Even a Cigar or Buy Your Sunday Paper.

Mayor Horatio Davis has ordered that the Sunday closing law be enforced to the letter and next Sunday will witness, for the first time in some years, Gainesville "closed."

According to this law it will be impossible for you to buy any cool drinks, your Sunday newspaper or any other luxuries that have heretofore been indulged in by the citizens.

The drug stores can remain open, but their sales will be limited to only drugs and medicines that are a necessity, and the restaurants and hotels will also be required to dispense with selling cigars which are handled in the offices of these places.

The ordinance makes no provision for closing of the livery stables on the Sabbath, and it is the opinion of many that it is too strict in some respects and not sufficiently strict in others, but the Mayor states that the law is on the books and he will have it enforced. The new council can amend the ordinance as they deem best, however.

The fruit stands will probably feel the effects of the law more than any other enterprises and some of them believe it is a direct "drive" at them.

Since the above was put in type, we are informed that even the drug stores will be forced to close, and no ice wagons will be allowed to run.

ing his record investigated," said Mr. Cone, "and I don't believe any Senator would object."

Senator Johnson rose to a point of privilege, and stated that he is local counsel for the Atlantic Coast Line railroad, and ride on a pass up to January 1, but has not since. He said the people of Suwannee county are fully acquainted with the fact.

Senator Humphries spoke in behalf of the resolution. "I have heard that certain State officials have been traveling about the State on matters entirely apart from the State, whether at State expense or not, I don't know, but it is a scandal upon the State," he said.

The Cone amendment was lost by a vote of 15 to 7.

The original resolution was adopted.

Senator Harris then introduced a resolution covering the Cone amendment and requiring the Railroad Commission to furnish list of passes given by railroads during 1907, 1908 or 1909 to department heads or employees or members of the Legislature. Adopted.

Resolution No. 40, by Beard—That report of I. L. Fund Investigating Commission has been received and that committee of five lawyers be appointed to investigate to ascertain if suit cannot be brought against the trustees, their bondsmen and those to whom funds were paid to recover amounts that were exorbitant.

Mr. Flournoy's resolution asking for a committee of three to investigate the report and recommend what action should be taken by the Senate was read.

"It is incumbent upon us," said Senator Beard, "to do something in this matter. Something must be done to stop those who have shown so little regard during the past four years to the trust reposed in them by the people of the State."

Mr. Beard then reviewed the history of the business of the certain cases heard by the courts to encourage their building. At present, he said, have been employed at fabulous sums to fight contention of railroads to

REPUBLICANS STAND PAT AGAINST AN INCOME TAX

To Avoid Disappointment Friends May As Well Abandon Hope of Such Measure.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—To avoid disappointment friends of an income tax may as well abandon hope of such a measure being enacted while the present Republican leaders remain in power.

The Aldrich-Cannon-Dalzell crowd have no more intention of permitting an income tax to become a law at the special session of Congress than they had of passing a postal bank bill or of admitting Arizona and Mexico into the Union as States, at the Sixtieth Congress. The postal bank and Statehood measures are especially referred to because the Republican National platform promised both. The income tax is as unpopular with the Aldrich clique as were the postal bank and Statehood propositions, and will stand the same chance of success.

Senator Aldrich has already decided what will go into the tariff bill, and the things he has decided upon does not include an income tax. The Democrats will solidly support the Bailey amendment to the tariff bill providing for an income tax. It is said sufficient votes will be forthcoming from the "progressive" element of the Republican party to pass the Bailey amendment.

The writer has received assurance from authoritative sources that Senator Aldrich has completed a sufficient number of agreements by log rolling methods to make an income tax impossible. He is said to have exchanged protection on hides, coal and lumber for the non-interference with his no-income tax policy.

The bill will provide, according to the information referred to, for a 15 per cent duty on hides, a 40 cent per cent duty on coal and a maintenance of the lumber schedules as they are fixed in the Dingley or present tariff act. The lumber schedules as they stand in the Payne bill provide for a reduction on rough lumber of from $2 to $1 per thousand feet. This rate will be put back to $2, it is said.

The bill will not provide for an inheritance tax. An inheritance tax stands in better favor with Senator Aldrich than an income tax, but is considered out of the question because of the fact a large number of States already have inheritance taxes on their statute books.

It is not hard to understand why no small number of Senators will aid the wealthy Rhode Island solon in his fight against an income tax. There are many millionaires in the Upper House. There are more than a few Senators with incomes of more than $100,000 a year.

Under the proposed Bailey income tax a corporation or individual with an income of $100,000 would be taxed $3,000 a year, and under the Cummins income tax plan an individual with an income of the same size would be taxed $5,000 a year.

To the man with an income of $100,000 the proposed income tax legislation looms up something like this:

"I am now making $100,000 a year. I am not paying a cent of taxes on this sum to the Government. If an income tax law is passed I must pay out from $3,000 to $5,000 a year that I am not now paying."

Naturally the average rich man considers an income tax a vicious measure, and renders Senator Aldrich, Wall street's representative in the Senate, all the moral support possible.

A few years back Senator Aldrich characterized an income tax as a doctrine espoused only by "Socialists, Populists and Democrats," calculated to bring about a redistribution of wealth. The Senate boss no longer uses the same terms, as several members of his own party now favor such a measure.

Present indications are that an income tax will be an impossibility until a Democratic majority prevails in Congress. The position of the Democrats in fighting for tariff revision downward and an income tax is that the burden of taxation should be placed on the rich, who are best able to bear it without discomfort. Senator Bailey's proposition is that as revenue is raised by taxing wealth the duties on the necessities of life should decrease.

Because Aldrich will be able to prevent the incorporating of an income tax feature in the tariff law in the end, does not mean there will be no fight over the subject. The Democrats and "insurgents" promise to engage the "stand pat" crowd in one of the fiercest parliamentary battles ever fought in the Upper House. The country will be educated up to the minute on the virtues of an income tax, and for that reason the fight will not have been fought in vain.

House Follows Senate in Investigation Movement

TALLAHASSEE, April 30.—The feature of yesterday's session of the House of Representatives was the adoption of a concurrent resolution providing for the appointment of a joint committee of three from the House and two from the Senate to investigate the report of the special commission by the Legislature of 1907 for the purpose of examining the affairs of the Trustees of the Internal Improvement Fund.

The commission reported some days ago and the report in substance has been published, the report, which was an exhaustive one, giving as it did the actions of the trustees in detail from the date of the inception of the fund in 1885 until the present day.

Consideration of the report has been continued from time to time, and was placed on House calendar under head of special order of business Wednesday. From motion of Mr. Collins of Nassau the special order was discontinued.

The appointment of a committee to investigate the report is meant as no reflection upon the integrity or conscientiousness of members of the majority of the special commission. A majority of the members of the House believed, however, that the general public would not be satisfied with an investigation of the report was made before condemnation of any one is made by either house of the Legislature. Proceedings in the courts against the trustees, as regarding the alleged exorbitant attorney fees paid former Governor Jennings, is hinted at.

The finance and taxation committee reported unfavorably on House Bill 309, by Mr. Light of Marion, proposing a tax of 1 per cent upon the gross earnings of public service corporations. Out of nine members of the committee there was but one dissenting vote on the unfavorable report and that was by Mr. Light. The bill stands on first reading and will probably not be taken up for some days to come. Sentiment is rapidly crystallizing against this measure, which is deemed by many to propose the most unjust and unfair legislation in many years.

Major new bills were introduced, the first being House Bill 401, by Duke of Alachua, establishing and maintaining certain game preserves.

House Bill No. 402, by Mr. Wells of Leon, requires all persons purchasing cotton seed of lint cotton to keep a list of names from whom same was purchased, and keeping purchases in such condition as may be properly traced. From motion, 200 copies of investigation of the report was

Young Turks Put to Death 250 Conspirators

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 30.—The Constitutionalists have lost no time in bringing the conspirators in the recent rising to trial. The military court, sitting in the War Office yesterday, condemned 250 prisoners to death and they were executed. Nispet Pasha, the second cousin of the sultan, was hanged at dawn.

The National Assembly, which met under the presidency of Said Pasha, decided that the Sultan, Mehmed V, should take the oath of the constitution within a week. The assembly also notified the deportation of Abdul Hamid to Adana.

It is not expected that the new cabinet will be completed before tomorrow. The difficulty at present exists in finding suitable men for the ministers of Finance and Interior. Tewfik Pasha, who will be the grand vizier, has sent a communication to several provincial officials on this subject.

Abdul's Son Flees.

The government has decided to send a commission to Adana to try to quell the insurrection of the measures and the commission is authorized to act with the utmost secrecy.

It is alleged that the chief authors of the recent mutiny were Abdul Hamid's brothers, Prince Mehmed Burhaneddin, Rear Admiral Said Pasha, son of Kiamil Pasha, the former Grand Vizier and Nadir Pasha, who were engaged for a long time prior to the rising in corrupting the troops. The two former have fled.

ownership of the lands and yet all cases settled were compromised.

Senator Flournoy rose to a point of order, but it was not sustained.

Senator Beard reviewed the work of W. S. Jennings. "It almost seems," he said, "like all those trustees did was to meet and approve the fabulous claims for fees of Mr. Jennings. He received nearly a third of the entire amount of attorneys' fees paid out in the history of the fund."

Senator Flournoy rose to a point of order and appealed from the decision of the chair. The chair felt personally that Mr. Flournoy was right in that Mr. Beard's remarks would come better when the special committee reports. The ruling of the chair was sustained.

Senator Beard continued his review of the report where it concerned Mr. Jennings and sharply criticised the manner in which Jennings received his fees. He spoke for over an hour, charging that Jennings had got over $50,000 out of the treasury of the people.

He spoke of Jennings as a frebooter and also held the trustees to be just as blamable in the matter. "Some will say that I speak from personal dislike," he said. "I confess that I don't love the gentleman. How could I when he has played such havoc with my State?"

Urging that his resolution be adopted, Mr. Beard concluded with the hope that suit might be brought against those concerned.

Mr. Henderson amended the Flournoy resolution to require a report within ten days.

Senator Johnson offered a substitute requiring report before May 7. Mr. Henderson accepted the substitute.

The amendment was adopted. The resolution was then adopted.

Senator Beard then called up his own resolution.

Senator Cone moved that this resolution go over until May 7 at 11 a. m. Much discussion resulted.

The motion of Mr. Cone was adopted by a vote of 15 to 11.

REV. S. B. ROGERS TO RESIGN PASTORATE

NEW POSITION FORCED UPON HIM
BY STATE BOARD OF MISSIONS.

An Extra Service Will Be Held on Sunday Evening, When He Will Decide.

At a meeting of the State Board of Missions of the Florida Baptist State Convention held in Jacksonville on the 27th inst., Rev. S. B. Rogers of this city was elected to fill the position of Rev. L. D. Geiger, the position having been made vacant by the death of the latter.

We understand that this will necessitate the resignation of Rev. Rogers as pastor of the church in Gainesville, although it will not necessarily cause him to remove to another point, as he is at liberty to make his residence in any portion of the State he may desire.

This position is perhaps the most important in the State among this strong body of Christian workers and has been practically forced upon the man, many letters and telegrams already having been received urging him to accept.

At the present time Rev. Rogers is unable to state positively what action he will take in the matter and asks that all members of his church attend the meeting on Sunday night at the church. As matters now stand, however, it appears that he will be compelled to carry on the work which Rev. Geiger had in charge.

Not only is Rev. Rogers liked by his own members, but the Christian people of all denominations of the city would regret very much to see him remove from the city for various reasons. He has started movements that will need his assistance, notably the enlargement of the church, which would add greatly to the facilities of this place of worship.

DEATH OF MRS. CHESNUT.

Sad Event Occurred at Her Home Friday Morning at 11 O'clock.

The news of the death of Mrs. Louie McCaa Chesnut, which occurred at her home on Friday morning at 11 o'clock, came as a great shock to her many friends and acquaintances in this city who had known and loved her.

She had been a patient sufferer for many months and everything known to medical skill and science had been done to allay her sufferings. A few weeks ago it was thought her health was being regained, but unfortunate circumstances arose which ended the young life to its last reward.

She was the devoted wife of Mr. John Chesnut, who, with two small children, Miss Jessie and John, survive her; their ages being about 10 and 8 years, respectively.

The deceased was a consistent member of the Episcopal Church, a prominent and influential member of Kirby Smith Chapter, U. D. C., and a vice-president of the Florida Division. She was ever found ready and willing to render what aid she could for all charitable purposes and by her pleasant manner had won hosts of friends who feel her loss deeply.

The funeral services will be held from the home this afternoon, interment being in Evergreen Cemetery. Rev. F. H. Good Roads Question Is One That Is Being Agitated in All Sections of the State.

Alachua county was well represented at the State Good Roads Association, which met in Palatka on Tuesday. Messrs. Dampier and Cannon, of the Board of County Commissioners of this county, were in attendance and took a prominent part in the discussions. Capt. Cox of the Civil Engineering Department of the University, with Mr. Gibbs, one of the Senior students who has been specializing in road work, were also present. Prof. Cox made a report to the association on the progress of the work of the State Geological Survey in lines, also touching upon the student road survey which has been operating in the southern part of this county.

The possibility of using artificial brick on our country roads was the most prominent topic of general discussion.

The meeting was well attended and the citizens of Palatka extended every possible courtesy.

Through the enterprise of Mr. Dampier the 1910 meeting of the association will be held in Gainesville.

Mr. J. R. Emerson of this county also attended the meeting.

DEPUTY WYNN MAKES ANOTHER GOOD CATCH

PRISONERS BROUGHT TO THIS CITY AND PLACED IN JAIL.

Woman Was Given Sixty Days for Larceny and Man Bound Over to Spring Term.

Deputy Sheriff S. G. Wynn of Newberry again showed that he is quick in working up cases when he safely landed two alleged offenders of the law, who were caught only a few hours after the cases had been reported to the officers.

Georgia Harris, a negro woman, became too light-fingered and stole a pair of shoes from another woman at Newberry. She was "picked up" by the officer and taken before Justice Carter, who imposed a sentence of sixty days.

Willie Spears, a young negro, was charged with the serious offense of having committed rape on the person of a little six-year-old negro child at Newberry, and he was bound over to await the action of the circuit court, which convenes in this city Monday.

The latter arrest was a valuable one, as the negro was a stranger in those parts and the deputy had only a very meagre description from the little girl to work upon, but he succeeded in getting the right man, he being identified by the party.

The Home of Captain Hutchinson, of Montpelier, Vt.

Chronic Catarrh and Throat Trouble.

"It gives me pleasure to write you this letter at this time on account of the good your Peruna has done me when I was quite done up with a very bad cold. I could hardly perform my ordinary duties, but from the use of Peruna I am almost restored to health."

"I am quite convinced that it has helped me from chronic catarrh, to which I am subject. It has also benefited my throat. I can truly recommend it as the best all-round medicine it has been my privilege to become acquainted with. Of this I am quite convinced from my own experience."—Capt. Lemuel M. Hutchinson, Montpelier, Vt.

Can Now Eat Anything.

Mr. J. W. Pritchard, Columbia City, Ind., writes: "I am pleased to say that I have been cured of catarrh of the stomach by Peruna."

"I could hardly eat anything that agreed with me. Before I would get half through my meal my stomach would fill with gas, causing me much distress and unpleasant feelings for an hour or two after each meal."

"But, thanks to your Peruna, I am now completely cured, and can eat anything I want to without any of the distressing symptoms. I can now enjoy my meals as I used to do, and it is all due to Dr. Hartman and his wonderful medicine, Peruna."

"It has been one year since I was cured, and I am all O. K. yet, so I know I am cured."

A Nervous Breakdown.

Mr. Lewis Zim, editor and proprietor of "St. Augustine Meteor," writes:

"Any man in public work finds at times that he is under a peculiar nerve strain. I found that with it I lost my appetite, and my brain seemed to work unceasingly during waking and sleeping hours, so I was tired and worn out in the morning."

"Tonics and invigorators were suggested and tried, but nothing was of benefit to me but Peruna. That is certainly a remarkable medicine. I was restored in three weeks to my normal healthy condition, my appetite returned and my sleep was refreshing."

FOILED THEIR PLOT.

The Way Mme. Alboni Frustrated a Scheme to Miss Her.

"Once upon a time, when Mme. Alboni was at Trieste," writes Henry C.
Labee in "Famous Singers of Today,"
"she was informed of the existence of a plot to hiss her off the stage. Having ascertained the names of her detractors and where they were to be found, she donned male attire, to which her short hair and robust figure helped to complete her disguise, and went to the cafe at which the conspirators met. Here she found them in full consultation, and, taking a seat at a table, she listened to their conversation for a time. After awhile she addressed the leader, saying: 'I hear that you intend to play a trick upon some one. I am very fond of a little practical joke myself and should be glad if you would allow me to join you on this occasion.'

"With pleasure," was the reply. 'We intend to hiss an opera singer off the stage this evening.'

"Indeed! And of what is she guilty?"

"Oh, nothing, except that, being an Italian, she has sung in Munich and Vienna to German audiences, and we think she ought to receive some castigation for her unpatriotic conduct."

"I agree with you, and now please tell me what I am to do."

"Take this whistle," said the leader.
'At a signal to be given at the conclusion of the air sung by Rosina the noise will begin, and you will have to join in.'

"I shall be very glad to do so," said
the singer and put the whistle in her pocket.

"In the evening the house was packed—every seat was occupied—and the audience warmly applauded the opening numbers of the opera. In due course Mme. Alboni appeared, and at the point at which she was about to address her tutor a few of the conspirators began to make a disturbance, not waiting for the signal.

"Without showing any concern Mme.
Alboni walked down to the footlights, and, holding up the whistle, which was hung to her neck by a ribbon, she exclaimed: 'Gentlemen, are you not a little before your time? I thought we were not to commence whistling until I had sung the air.'

"For a moment a deathly stillness prevailed; then suddenly the house broke into thunders of applause, which was led by the conspirators themselves."

A Batch of Bulls.

An Irishman excused himself from going to church by saying he had such an excellent telescope that with it he could bring the church so near he could hear the organ playing.

It was Pat who observed, after watching two men shoot at an eagle and hit it, that they might have saved
the powder and shot, as the fall alone would have killed the bird.

And it was Pat again who, telling a story as original and being informed by one of his auditors that he had read it in the translation of a Latin work, cried out: "Confound those ancient! They are always stealing one's good thoughts."

LANGUAGE OF MUSIC.

The Manner in Which It Appeals to the Human Heart.

To those musical agnostics who deny to music any beauties save those of design and maintain that of itself it cannot express ideas and feelings Redfern Mason makes appropriate reply.

But there is another side to the picture. What was it that made George II. rise in his place when they sang the "Hallelujah" chorus, thereby setting an example which is followed to this day? What was it in the finale of the fifth symphony that drew the Napoleonic veteran to his feet with the exclamation, "The emperor?" What sanctity in the Ambrosian bytans moved St. Augustine to tears?

During the wars of the French revolution it was forbidden, on pain of death, to play the "Ranz des Vaches"
in the hearing of the Swiss soldiers, for so acute a longing for home did it bring upon them that they deserted in hundreds. Are we to think that there was no virtue in the music itself and that the effect produced was the outcome of purely accidental circumstances?

The Austrian government forbade Berlioz to play the "Rackoczy" march at Budapest, fearful of its effect on the inflammable Hungarians. Was the fire of patriotism kindled by the mere knowledge that the melody symbolized Hungary, or did the notes speak with tongues of flame?—Atlantic Monthly.

TELEPHONE TALKS

The Long Distance System

One of the most valuable features of our service, to our subscribers and to the public generally, is our connection with the extensive long distance lines of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company and the other associated Bell Telephone companies.

We own thousands of miles of long distance lines in the seven States in which we operate and in addition can connect any telephone in our system with lines extending to any other city in which a Bell Telephone system is operated.

These long distance lines are of the most modern and improved construction and are maintained at a high state of efficiency. The Bell systems, operating in various sections of the country, are uniform in their equipment and in their methods of operating.

Only by reason of this close traffic arrangement between the Bell Telephone companies is it possible to go to a Bell Telephone almost anywhere, ask for "Long Distance" and be put in communication with almost any point in the country.

This vast network of wires, radiating throughout the nation, is used daily in commerce and for social purposes by the banker, the farmer and citizens in all walks of life and our plant here is an important link in this great chain.

A LION HUNT.

Usually a Case in Which Hunters Goad the Game into Combat.

There is a distinction in Africa between ordinary lions and "man eaters," says T. R. MacMechen in McClure's Magazine. The ordinary lion does not willfully attack man. The presence of lions roaming at night on the veldt is not disturbing to any native nor to whites who have come to understand the beast. Persons returning to their camps after daylight do not notice the roaring of lions or the cries of leopards or hyenas.

It is seldom that people bent upon domestic errands carry weapons in the darkness, although at night the veldt of British East Africa is alive with roaring beasts, which may be heard from the verandas of the houses. Lions give the passing man a wide berth, day or night, when it is apparent that he means no mischief. An ordinary lion, even when wounded, will try flight before fight. When its escape is disputed it will, especially if wounded, try to maul its enemy with teeth and claws.

A lion hunt is usually a chase in which the hunters goad the game into combat. Once a lion has tasted human blood, however, it is no more afraid of man, but learns that he is the weak spot of animals and the choicest of meat. Such a lion is known as a man eater because now he hunts man.
